IN THE SPOTLIGHT

ROSIE WEBBE

I was on stage at the age of six. I came out a box wearing a fuchsia Toto, made by her mother, and did a toe tap dance. The introduction as an entertainer. I have been doing my own shows for 20 years.

I am from South Philly and worked as a restaurant manager for Red Lobster for 21 years. I work at Mesa Good Shepherd as Assistant Activities & Spiritual Coordinator. I have been there for 12 years.

I volunteered for victims Katrina in 2005 feeding 300 people breakfast, lunch & dinner. It was a rewarding experience I volunteer at an Alzheimer's unit and made it a career out of it.

Participating in the MS Senior Arizona pageant has been the greatest experience of my life. I was voted MS Congeniality in 2011 and 2016. I love being part of the "Elegant Ladies".

SHARON WORD

I was born on July 4, 1939, in Boulder, Colorado. I am still sizzling, sparkling and booming that hasn't fizzled out yet! I taught in the Denver Public Schools for thirty-two years and was awarded the Denver Teacher' Award for Excellence in 1995. I retired in 1998 and was a "snow bird" living in Sun City until 2014 when I made Arizona my permanent home.

I have been married to Phil for 35 years and we have traveled the world. I have many hobbies which include playing the piano, golf, bridge, watercolor, oil painting and calligraphy. I love to write poetry and have published a children's book: The Word is Alphabet "Poems".

I have volunteered for many organizations and charities which include Beyond Brain Injury at Craig Hospital, the National Kidney Foundation, Christian Women's Club, La Sertoma and the Denver Alumnae of Gamma Phi Beta Sorority.

I have three children, and two grandchildren. In 2001, I was crowned "Ms. Senior Colorado and placed in the top ten in the MS Senior America Pageant. My philosophy of life is:

Yesterday cannot be relived, tomorrow is uncertain, so make the most of today.

Believe in yourself and what you can or cannot do.
Shoot for the moon, even if you miss you'll land among the stars.
