CAMEO CLUB SUPPORTS CHANGING LIVES OF KIDS IN POVERTY

Prescott Frontier Days Parade and Show was great fun. We had 10 Queens in the Parade, Banner Carriers and our very own Munchkin Majorette. The residents of Pioneer Home were entertained with a full show of 28 performers (see page four).

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

The Cameo Club started the “spotlight” feature but it was lost in the details of things that needed to be accomplished. Beginning at the July meeting and each month, thereafter, a name will be drawn for a member to be in the “spotlight”. Each member will be featured in the quarterly newsletter. The “spotlight” sister needs to send a favorite picture to Jean Ingrum at www.jmingrum@yahoo.com (or one will be taken at the meeting) and a brief article about yourself that the members might not know. For example: hobbies or a picture with your pet, etc.

NOW YOU KNOW: Chocolate syrup was used for blood in the famous 45 second shower scene in Alfred Hitchcock’s movie PSYCHO: the scene actually took seven days to shoot.

---

Cameo Newsletter Article/Picture Submission Procedure: The Cameo Newsletter is issued quarterly. In addition to an editor, there are two reporters, Rosie Wehbe (Eastside) and Mary Gray (Westside) and our very own photographer, Vernon Gray. Members may submit information via email to either of the aforementioned reporters or to Jean Ingrum at www.jmingrum@yahoo.com. Articles of interest to the membership must be related to the Cameo Foundation, Ms. Senior Arizona Pageant or the Cameo Club. The deadline is by the fifth (5th) of the month of the new quarter. For example: Information for the first quarter newsletter should be turned in by the fifth day of the month of the new quarter. (Quarter ending March 31; information due, April 5th). The newsletter will be sent email to the Cameo Sisters by the 10th of the new month.

Jean Ingrum, Editor

NOTE: There is something in this issue that does not belong. Good Luck!
