Age Of Elegance

Preparing for Nationals

I am sharing a little about my life as I recap 2017 & I prepare for the Ms Senior America National's October 19th.

This has been a wonderful summer. John & I bought a cute little place last winter in Show Low (elev. 6,300 ft). Of course, being our first summer. we wanted to be there as much as possible. But things don't always happen like you plan!

We have made eight trips back to the valley for various reasons but mostly Cameo & AZ Inspiration shows. It has been such fun getting to know all my new sisters, and seeing so much amazing talent! And, of course, getting to visit with the residents of different senior homes—such a blessing!

In preparing for Nationals, I have learned this year that I am very competitive person! Which means—work, work, work!. I had a lesson with a Flamenco dance instructor (very Helpful). I have a personal trainer for increasing my stamina & general toning, but so far it's mostly just soreness! Malaguena is still part of my every day practice—tapping & piano. I also began in June to prepare for my piano selection; Chopin for the 2018 Pageant.

In addition to all the practice, I am talking with many about what to expect in Atlantic City and how best to prepare. You can view bios of all contestants at <http://senioramerica.org/pageantcontestants.asp>. As you will see, there are some incredible women competing. My goal is to be prepared, do the best I can, do Arizona proud, and Trust God In All things.

Thank you all for caring. Leta

In the Spotlight

Susie Yarborough

I have a confession to make, I have an addiction, and it's something I have been addicted to for about 45 years! My Mother-in-law got me started on it, and I haven't really been able to control myself ever since then. I'm addicted to Coke, and I look for it anywhere I go. My children say it's really gotten out of control, but they give me Coke as birthday and Christmas gifts! We can be on vacation, and I find myself looking for Coke! I've spent so much money on Coke over the years, I have to laugh about it! In fact I have a whole room full of Coke in my home. I think we need a bigger house! Here is a small sample of my coke collection!
